Re: Vetrano v. Brda et al., Case No. [7:24-CV-00325-DC-RCG] - Update on Service

- Status of Service and Request for Guidance

Honorable Justices,

This letter is to respectfully provide the Court with an update on the status of service in the above-referenced matter and to request the Court's guidance on how to proceed due to the defendant's evasion of service.

Despite diligent efforts, we have been unable to effectuate service upon the Defendant Maurice Guitton. I have taken the following steps in an attempt to serve the Defendant:

- Steps you've taken to serve the defendant include:
- - Engaged a professional process server, Process Server One-Efile Expert LLC.

- Attempted service at the Defendant's last known address 242 Dufferin Street, Lunenburg, Nova Scotia BOJ 2C0 on three multiple occasions 3/31/2025, 4/5/2025, 4/4/2025.
- The Process server spoke to Defendant on the phone after the first in person attempt to serve him, confirmed he was away on business until the first week in April, agreed to meet up with the Process Server when he returned.
- During the first week in April the Process Server went to Defendant's home on two different occasions, there were two cars in the driveway, and no one answered the door either time.

These efforts have been met with:

- The Defendant is actively avoiding the process server.
- The Defendant is refusing to answer the door with multiple cars in the driveway twice.
- The Process server attempted to serve the Defendant three separate times.

Due to the Defendant's apparent evasion, we respectfully request the Court's guidance on how to proceed with this international service. I respectfully request a conference with the Court to discuss this matter further or an order authorizing another alternative.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jennifer Vetrano
